Hi, I just talked to Jim, he thinks it might be his printer cartridges, is there any way for us to tell who it is from exactly?

That's fine. If its not ours, don't worry about it. I let Fedex know that it is not a DPH delivery.

It will be delivered upstairs tomorrow. I'll be by mid-day to move Chris's PC and to check on the package from Dell. It may not even be for DPH.

I don't think so. They called it a Dell printer. I can have them deliver it upstairs and sort it out when it gets there.

I have no clue. I ordered toner cartridges from CAM Office Supply could it be them?

Good morning,

I had a phone message from FedEx regarding delivery of a Dell Printer to Public Health at 181 Stockbridge Rd. They needed additional address info. I can give them the correct address, but is anyone expecting this printer? I want to send them to the correct floor.

Thanks,
-Eric
